Nothing's Ever Hurts Like Love: Here's a modern collection of POETRY that speaks to you!

If your relationships are generally "complicated", then this young modern poet's look at love, romance, relationship drama, the magic of chemistry, true communication, and more is for you.

Here's one of the short poems from the book:

"looking straight down / below the quiet wave / as my hand / smoothes skipping stones / red crabs crawl below / gold meandering fish / as warm as water under the sun / my love for you / is deep and clear" --
Pristine, by Abby Streeter

"Both Love and Mourning Chase the Darkness" is the first collection of published poems by contemporary New England-based poet Abby Streeter, and represents a wide palette of reactions to love, relationships, personal identity, and more. Pristine is an example of some of the thoughtful and evocative poems readers will find in this collection. CHECK IT OUT TODAY!
