Dangerously In Love: "Blame It on the Streets" (Volume 1) Aletta H.

Reminisce would blame the streets for the way her life turned out. She grew up poor, insecure and wanting the finer things in life. That's where Jimmy came in at. He was a hustler and soon able to give Reminisce all the things in life she dreamed of. The problem was, Jimmy not only took care of her, and he also indulged in the finer things of life too. He was an obsessive cheater and a womanizer. Their relationship was entering the fifth year and things had gotten worse. But Reminisce loved Jimmy and was willing to put up with his bullshit as long as the money kept coming. But things changed when some men broke in the house to rob Jimmy and nearly killed them both during the robbery. Reminisce wanted out. She retreated to writing poetry, something she used to do as a little girl. She soon found strength in her heart to want out. Jimmy got arrested and she found her first real chance of leaving Jimmy. But would she make it on her own without the drug money Jimmy provided? Reminisce blames the streets but the streets doesn't owe anyone any loyalty. Dangerously In Love is a modern love tale filled with danger, passion, and one woman's dream of escape.
