Tara tried to run away from her problems...

She had tried to become a nun after her latest attempt with a charming man went awry. Stumbling upon a nunnery, Tara's entire idea of how life works was suddenly turned upside down. She felt comfortable being around women who chose to be celibate. Women who were always very caring and helpful woman when she discussed her problems with men.

After meeting all of the women, Tara notices that she has a strong attraction to the only nun of color, Sister Josephine: A woman known not only for her colored beauty, but for her fragile and heartwarming like nature.

But there is a problem...

Sister Josephine has the same attraction, and even god won't stop them from truly expressing it with one another.

This is a stand alone novella with a HEA (Happily Ever After) Ending.
