Healing hearts and second chances ...

When Will Tanner stopped her for speeding on a Wyoming backroad, Andrea McPhee couldn't resist trying to tease a smile out of the brooding temporary sheriff, aching to bring some light to hold back the dark shadows. Her best friend's older brother has journeyed through hell and deserves to find heaven on the other side – or at least a little peace.

Though fiercely drawn to the comfort of her arms, Will isn't sure he can find room for a woman like Andie in a life focused on vengeance – until he discovers she has secrets of her own.

Can a man possessed by the past give the woman who loves him new hope? And can a woman still fighting her own demons be the sanctuary he needs?

Romantic Times gave the book four stars and reviewer Melinda Helfer said, “Ms. Thayne creates richly textured characters who engage both our hearts and minds in this deftly plotted, emotionally uplifting love story.”
