Becoming a Christian can be likened to becoming an Olympic athlete. In order to be called an Olympic athlete one needs to reach the pinnacle of self-discipline, or else all hope of winning will be lost. Likewise a believer cannot step into the race of God without counting the cost first.

A man of God is called to be the leader in this race. But first he must be disciplined in love, faithfulness, and in obedience to the guiding hand of Christ. In this book you will learn how to apply the life changing habits of Jesus outlined in the Scriptures. From your personal walk, to marriage, to every man's battle we will leave no stone unturned as we plunge deep into the Scriptures for what it means to be a real man of God.

Real Men Love Jesus is a book that will challenge and equip you to change your life and become a real man after God's own heart.
