Bloody But Unbowed John Seaman

"Absolutely terrific," said one reviewer of John Seaman's "Bloody But Unbowed," a saga of an artist's life, successes, illicit sex and madness. John courageously chose life, enduring the times of pain and chaos, and readers can feel a range of responses which may include being deeply inspired, entertained, and heartfully moved by his honesty, his tender side, his generous sharing and his victorious presence. His story encourages survival through times of darkness, persistence, followed by the willing partaking of life. "Bloody But Unbowed" is gorgeously written--his eloquent style, his philosophizing and analytical thinking are admirable. His language is rich with scientific knowledge and surprising parenthetical allusions. It is rare that a person who has been through what he has can articulate so beautifully what he's experienced. It is rare enough that a such a person has survived and now retains a sound mind, sound enough to think, to write, to communicate so effectively.
