Every family has a dark past. Wyatt McKenna has avoided his hometown for years, until a chance encounter prompts him to return to the small Texas town of Caldero, a place where he prefers to keep the memories of his childhood buried. Natalie Betancourt is sent to spend the summer with her aunts in Caldero, in an attempt to escape the curse placed by the very priests that have guarded her family's secret for generations. In a sleepy Southern town where nothing ever happens, Wyatt is charged with changing the course of Natalie's fate and the destiny that awaits them both.
