The House on Serpent Lake: A Haunting Story of Timeless Love Brenda Hill

She remembers a past she never had, three lives. betrayal, and the great love that haunts her dreams.

When her husband inherits his abandoned childhood home on a north woods lake, Lindsay Peterson is delighted. Until . . . Strange things happen when she sees the decaying house for the first time: she knows how the rooms are arranged, knows of a gazebo that hasn't existed for fifty years.

After they move in, dreams of a lover from another time haunt her sleep, then intrudes on her days with déjà vu until the present blurs with the past. A stirring of air caresses her with whispered touch.

Then the touches become real.

Advisory: Due to mature content, this book is recommended for 17+ readers.
