They say All Fair in Love ..but what happens when drugs, sex, and mayhem com into play?

When you think that nothing can go wrong the life of Stasi and her friends and family, things begin to change dramatically. The only question is: Is this change for the best or worst?

Stasi is a twenty-six Haitian kingpin's daughter who has been getting groomed to follow in her father's footsteps. She knows everything she needs to know about the game and more. In addition to the opulence around her, Stasi just wanted to be loved. Soon she meets her knight in shining armor, but will it be the fairytale ending she is looking for or will she be blinded by theS? What happens when Stasi begins to bite off more than she can chew? Is she going to be taken in for questioning? Is someone turning fed?

Marissa wants to feel what real love is all about. She knows that it's not her boyfriend, Chris, but blinded by the love she has for him, she continues to stay. Undoubtedly, a toxic relationship, she still put up with B.S. in the name of love. Once her blinders are removed, she is swept off her feet by the handsome, Javon. Not everyone is happy for their union, so someone is lurking in the shadows for their shot of revenge. Marissa may've gotten herself into more than she can handle. With dealing with a made man, drama and beef ensues. Will Marissa and Javon be able to within the tests along the way towards their hood love? Or will they crack under pressure?

Casey and Javon have been friends for years and have grown up in the game together. While Javon is more cool and reserved, Casey is impulsive and a bit of a hothead. Casey's heart beats for the excitement and thrill of the game. All he needs now is for a woman to share it with him. A chance encounter with his dream woman may prove to be more than what meets the eye. Casey has no idea how much his life is about to change. Will he be down to ride?

Navigate the cold streets of Jacksonville as Stasi, Javon, Marissa, and Casey's lives intertwine in ways that neither of them may be ready for or expecting. Tune into AFILD and enter into the world of crime, love, gunplay, and sex- the inner makings of a hood love classic.
