The Lost City of Zarahemla: From Iowa to Guatemala and Back Again JD, Jonathan Neville MS

This second edition adds considerable material regarding the history of origin of the Mesoamerican theory of Book of Mormon geography, including more historical detail about the Times and Seasons and the fascinating people in Church history who were involved. It also adds maps and explanation for a proposed North American geography that incorporates every verse in the text as well as relevant statements by Joseph Smith, Oliver Cowdery, and David Whitmer.
