Jean Cocteau et l'Italie: Regards croisés entre littérature, peinture et cinéma (French Edition) Roberto Zemignan

Dans le sillage des récentes études tendant à faire redécouvrir la dimension européenne de Jean Cocteau et afin de redessiner avec davantage de précision son portrait italien, le présent ouvrage se propose de croiser l'œuvre de l'artiste avec la culture du "Bel Paese". Le livre prendra ainsi trois directions. La première examinera en profondeur la biographie du poète et l'historique des ses relations avec notre pays et ses artistes; la seconde privilégiera le domaine cinématographique, à travers l'analyse de ses écrits sur la découverte du cinéma italien et la place que la presse de la péninsule accorde à son œuvre. Enfin, la troisième proposera d'étudier d'un peu plus près les relations que trois cinéastes italiens ont su nouer avec son œuvre : il s'agit de Roberto Rossellini, de Luciano Emmer et de Michelangelo Antonioni.
