The Pendant R Toola

A once in lifetime all expenses working trip takes Charles Lambsworth and Richard Sefton to the tea plantations of Darjeeling and the Himalayas as the antiques dealers and couriers retrieve a necklace for a client. Their journey is anything but ordinary as they meet the enigmatic Bethwick in an unlikely cave full of treasures deep somewhere in the mountains. A woman appears on the scene, Charles doesn't make it back to England and Richard has the job of closing the deal. A routine job is turning out to be anything but as Richard finds himself becoming more on edge on his return to England. His initial curiosity for the pendant starts to diminish when he finds himself unable to explain the sinister things happening to him. Events cascade and spiral out of control and his wealthy client decides to reveal a dark supernatural family secret held within the pendant. But has this come too late to save Richard ...
