How To Fall Disastrously In Love In 46 Easy Steps Madeline Bale

We've all done it haven't we? All fallen disastrously in love. But not Maddie Bale. No. Middle aged, muddled up Maddie is pottering quietly through life with her wayward teenage daughter; her largely absent (thankfully) husband and ridiculously happy dog, when her remote English village is jolted out of its stupor by the arrival of a deliciously exciting new family.

He is a top General in the Royal Marines, fresh from Afghanistan, and when his brittle and beautiful wife forms a village book club, Maddie is unexpectedly thrown into their elevated social circle. Meeting General Tom Butcher catapults this bewildered 'woman-next-door' into an all consuming, life changing world of pain, passion and panic.

This funny, poignant and intelligently observed rural tale sees Maddie stumbling through a tortuous journey of self-discovery from mouse to mistress (of her own destiny.)

Caution: it's hot, so read with care and have a fire extinguisher to hand!
