This book of Bible stories, for children ages 4 to 8, is written by well-known children's Bible storyteller Kenneth N. Taylor. More than 170 stories, most of which have classic, full-color illustrations by Richard and Frances Hook, cover the entire message of the Bible. Stories will introduce children to God and his Word, teach about Jesus and God's people, and show how to love and obey God. A simple plan of salvation will help parents explain how to become a Christian. By reading five stories a week, a child will finish the Old Testament in five to six months and the New Testament in less than three months.
