If you have ever read or skimmed over a “Survival” book, listing all the things necessary and recommended for surviving the chaotic, anarchic, and violent times which would follow either an atomic electro-magnetic pulse (EMP), or some pandemic, or a thermo-nuclear World War, or a major comet or asteroid strike, or some other extremely unpleasant scenario involving especially the extended loss of our electrical power grid, you may have been tempted to just throw up your hands in despair or else just submerge the whole unpleasant idea into your subconscious while you continue living your normal day-to-day life - albeit with a certain amount of understandable fear. With this book, however, you will receive the most important information on how to prepare for and survive a wide variety of SHTF scenarios, and without having to spend an arm and a leg doing so.
