Paul and me were finally coming together in spite of the things that seemed to be keeping us apart. Paul was making plans for the championship bout he had coming up. This is what he had worked for his entire adult life. The money and the notoriety for winning the title could be life-changing for him and his family. The problem nobody saw coming was Mitch. He's out on bail and still out for revenge. Can Paul and me survive and if we do, will all of our plans be ruined?
