Defending Serenity (Bad Boys of River City Book 1) Elle Wylder

He'll get his revenge, one way or the other...

The one righteous act of Trace Graham's life cost him ten years in prison, and now that he's out he's looking for a little payback. His fury has one focus, the woman whose life he'd defended that long ago night, Serenity Lynn Jameson.

She's spent a decade atoning for her father's sins...

Police detective Lynn Jameson has her hands busy with a missing person and drug smuggling case. The last thing she needs is Trace bulldozing his back into her life. She knows better than to get involved with a recently released convict, even if his touch is something she's dreamed of for years.

Opposites attract...or do they collide?

As things heat up between them, Lynn's investigation paints a target on her back and Trace has to decide how far he's willing to go for revenge and love.

WARNING: Defending Serenity was previously published as a 20,000 word story under another pen name. It has been rewritten and expanded to 40,000 words. It contains violence, explicit language, and graphic sex. For mature readers only.
