If Horses Could Talk: Tails of Two Mustangs Vickie L. Peach Wilkins

A Southwest Spanish Mustang narrates the story, giving his perspective, which sets a sweet tone that crawls into the heart of animal and non-animal lovers alike. Through trials and tragedies he shares meaningful life lessons woven through the story. He tells of the bond between horse and human while bringing some awareness of the needs of Mustangs to light. Take a journey with him and a friend, through laughter and tears, as he tells a significant part of his life story from “Foals And Other New Life” to “Running In Tall Green Grass.” With the sense of being there, the author wants her readers to enjoy the experience, be captivated with the story, and come away with a different perspective.
