Marriage Advice: Dos and Don'ts for Husbands and Wives

'A man should not only love his wife dearly, but he should tell her that he loves her, and tell her very often, and each should be willing to yield, not once or twice, but constantly, and as a practice to the other.' - Edward John Hardy.

This anthology of advice on marriage contains extracts by well known writers from the past including Jane Austen, Honore de Balzac, Jonathan Swift and Samuel Taylor Coleridge, as well as many lesser known but equally perceptive authors; as relevant today as ever.

Divided into chapters based on marriage vows - 'For better, for worse', 'For richer, for poorer' etc, it contains timeless wisdom to help husbands and wives have happy, fulfilled married lives and to overcome the difficulties that occur even in the best of partnerships.
