Mother of Abominations: A Monster Earth Novel Desmond Reddick

Ripped from the pages of MONSTER EARTH comes the first ever novel set in that world where giant monsters reign supreme!

Bree Kenny is about to blow up Parliament. But she is shocked when her plan fails and she is captured and given an offer she can't refuse. Her brother will be released from prison if she goes to Loch Ness to kill a man who should already be dead, a man who is over a hundred years old yet appears to be in the prime of his youth. A man named Aleister Crowley.

Crowley is up to something big, and to pull it off he needs Bree, and treats her like a goddess. Will Bree do what her government handlers want or comply with Crowley's wishes? Or, does Bree have a more sinister purpose in mind? To survive the next few days, Bree must fit in with Crowley's throng of political dissidents, including jealous May, plotting Doucette, and young, naive Emma. With her government handlers watching her every move, Bree discovers the true power within her as she brings Hell to downtown London and live up to her promise as Babalon, the Scarlet Woman,
