The Sword of Solonus Adam Matthews

Human life is a struggle in the medieval kingdom of Orenelle, and the high elves promise King Ceron and his people an escape from this struggle. Only by embracing the Light of the Elwan, (the forest spirit and life force of the elves) will the population achieve everlasting life- whilst leaving behind famine, disease, and death. When the day of salvation arrives, mankind will undergo a metamorphosis and will join the high elves to live in the sacred woodland paradise of Sera Norem, but at what cost? Only a few dare to question the real implications of elvish immortality, but among them is the king's sixteen-year-old son, Prince Cebril. Young, curious, and impatient, Cebril yearns to explore life outside the palace walls... and outside of the Elwan Faith. When the prince is exiled due to circumstances beyond his control, his prayer for freedom is answered. With nothing but a broken compass and his soul to guide him, Cebril starts out on a quest of self-discovery; a far ranging journey that will reveal the true nature of man's heralded transcendence, the value of love, and the perils of war. Cebril's travels will inexorably lead him to uncover a powerful weapon... a legendary sword with the power to change his fate and his world- the Sword of Solonus.
