Possibly the most wonderful, and most shocking romance ever written. Jane Eyre becomes the governess of Adele, possibly the illegitimate child of our brutal hero, Mr Rochester. Over a number of months the couple fall hopelessly in love. But as the passions increase, so do the strange and almost tragic events that lead up to a shocking and heart-breaking revelation. The book follows Jane Eyre's physical and spiritual journey that will eventually lead to a happiness that is even sweeter, as it is so hard-won.

A truly wonderful book, illustrated by celebrated artist and caricaturist F. H. Townsend and with an easy to navigate chapter index.

Jane Eyre has been the inspiration for an abundance of novels, short stories, TV adaptations and films.
