No one would have guessed that Chaney got the job with Tremden-Filbert thanks to her looks. Yet, she did, since it wasn't the nasty company owner Arthur Tremden who was responsible for hiring her but his breathtakingly handsome and charming Tanner Tremden, whos seems to share little more than the surname with his father.

Soon Chaney is to discover that the seemingly so strong and independet man is caught in a web of intrigues. Can trying to help him win back his freedom also win her his heart?
