Rhonda Calling is an elderly lady with a walking cane, who lives in Bayswater Street, London. She is trying to get possession over a magic coat, which hangs on an iron gate, across the street from her. Anyhow, in order to do so, she must enter the building, which is enclosed by the gate. Two little helpers called Hades and Saige join her on this quest. But it's a fact that the two don't know yet. Experiencing Hyde Park by night, in order to get to Bayswater Street, their walk home couldn't be more startling. A fairy that is guiding the way, a mysterious house in the middle of the park, a secret entrance and other milestones are teaching them, that there is life beyond their imagination.
