The Red Headed Farmer: Love Leads Her Home Loretto Livingston

Brenda dated many men along her career path through Savannah, Atlanta and finally New York but none that she wanted to spend her life with. As she came to the culmination of a lifelong dream to see for herself the ruins of her family's ancestral plantation home she stumbles upon a rugged red-headed war veteran who steps out of the woods and into her life. She is intrigued by how peaceful and grounded he is considering all he has lived through. Back in New York she cannot forget him. Soon, there is another chance encounter, or is it a planned meeting? A desperate little girl with a dangerous secret enters her life and claims her heart. Brenda worked so hard and so long to reach her career goals. Can it be that a red headed farmer and a damaged street urchin can lead her back to her Georgia roots and home again?
