This book is part of the "Everyman" series which has been re-set with wide margins and easy-to-read type and includes a themed introduction and a chronology of the life and times of the author. Including the Gettysburg Address, this collection presents the speeches and letters of Abraham Lincoln, who rose from humble beginnings and with little education to be President of the United States during the Civil War. His letters reveal he was a man who valued integrity above success and his writings on slavery show how immovable was his certainty of right and wrong.
