Ask, Seek, Knock Marcus M. Mottley

This book will help you to examine your life through the use of questions so that you can achieve the levels of personal power and success you desire. The proper use of the right questions can propel us to become aware of how we fit into the scheme of things, how we think and feel about our values, spirituality and personal behaviors, where we are on our personal vision and mission, what we are not doing that we could be, and how to actualize our inner desires. Questions force us to confront and face ourselves. We learn How to Ask, What to Seek, and Where and When to Knock. The questions in this book will position you to move forward and take decisive and relentless actions towards your goals. The author presents strategies and techniques that will help you to illuminate your life and think freely. You will be empowered to act passionately, positively, purposefully and persistently.
