Bear Crazy (BBW Paranormal Romance) (A Stand Alone Novella) Alycia Meade

After Willow Dale's life and career gets turned upside down by someone she once trusted, she spends her days hoping for the time she'll rise again and make the kind of art she loves. When a mysterious bear ends up at the zoo she works for, and a handsome man seemingly on a mission follows soon after, she finds herself embroiled in an unexpected adventure and a torrid, whirlwind romance. A happy ending could be on her horizon, but will she stand up and take it?

Caleb Hastings is a bear shifter and heir to his family's vast fortunes, but he longs to express his animal instincts more often than city life allows. After a frenetic night spent roaming the city streets together in bear form, his best friend is captured, and winds up stuck in a local zoo indefinitely. All Caleb can think about is getting him out until a chance meeting with the beautiful Willow and recurring dreams about his future mate constantly haunt him. They may just turn out to be one and the same, but the timing is terrible.

His inner bear wants her and the comfort her endearing personality and fabulous curves give, more than anything else. Can he balance wooing his fated mate, who may turn out to be a much-needed asset in his plans after all, with saving his friend?

This is a stand alone novella with adult scenes and a HEA ending.
