Drake's Comprehensive Compendium of Dragonology (Ologies) Dr. Ernest Drake
Dragonologists, look no further! Here, in a single handsome, indispensable volume, is gathered a lifetime's worth of knowledge about these magnificent creatures.

Call it an encyclopedia of dragonology — an authorized resource so definitive that dragon lovers everywhere are fired up with excitement. From the esteemed Dr. Drake comes a beautifully illustrated, lovingly assembled tribute to all things dragonological, featuring:

- A guide to dragon species, with entries on everything from the well-known European dragon to the lesser-known hydra — as well as pseudo-species such as the phoenix and the incognito
- Insight into dragon biology, from flight to reproduction (with tips on how to tell the males from the females)
- An in-depth look at dragons' habits, including migration, communication, camouflage, and notorious hoarding practices
- A section on humans and dragons, offering secrets of tracking and taming, deciphering riddles, and becoming a dragon master
- Practical essentials such as how to keep records, use spells, keep specimens, and care for sick dragons
- A comprehensive glossary, index, and much more!
