After two back-to-back romantic disappointments, Angel Henderson isn't looking for love. In the past month, she's been passed over twice by men, in favor of younger women. She's ready to swear off men for life. The only problem? A younger man determined to be her right man. Deputy Troy Lee Farr is tired of being the department screw-up. The harder he tries to prove himself, the worse it gets. His bigger challenge? Convince Angel he's more than a fun date. However, unexpected consequences from Angel's past and Troy Lee's present threaten the tentative happiness they've found in one another.
