Shaman, Priestess, Pawn: An Urban Fantasy Thriller (Olivia Lawson Techno-Shaman Book 4) M. Terry Green

In the heartland of the ancient Maya, techno-shaman Olivia Lawson isn't just an oddity, she's an outcast. Despite having trekked through the jungle to find shamans thought to be extinct, Livvy finds the ultra-clandestine group not just closed but downright hostile. To her surprise though, their interest in SK borders on obsession.

Soon the pair discover that their hosts harbor not only secrets but also treachery. Plans hide within plans as Livvy's search for knowledge goes inexplicably awry. The only constant is SK, but to Livvy's horror, their journey triggers an unexpected odyssey for him.

What began as the pursuit of wisdom quickly descends into a race for survival. Driven to find her own path, Livvy must accept that change isn't just hard, it's deadly.

Interview with the Author

Q - Livvy's still on the road. Why Guatemala?

A - In terms of the series, Livvy and SK visit Central America because it's a natural progression for their characters. In terms of research, it's a place I've been so there was no road trip involved! More than that though, the Maya cosmos is a surreal fictional landscape. Fantasy, metaphysical, and science fiction writers could learn a thing or two about flights of the imagination from the ancient Maya.

Q - Is the Dwarf of Uxmal real?

A - Oh yes, at least in the sense that the Maya believed in him. Ancient Maya wall paintings and ceramics sometimes depict dwarfs in conjunction with royalty. Small people had a special and elevated status at court. Even here in California Shoshonean groups have the Water Baby. We took a special trip to see Water Baby rock art, and I posted it on my Facebook page.

Q - What was the inspiration for this book?

A - Readers have been fascinated with SK since nearly the first scene in the first book. In fact, for a while, I thought he might run away with the story. In this novel I took some time to get to know him better. Naturally Livvy is growing as well, but his odyssey forms a backdrop against which hers is thrown into sharp contrast. As always, she'll lay everything on line when it comes to their relationship.

Shaman, Priestess, Pawn: An Urban Fantasy Thriller is the fourth novel in the Olivia Lawson Techno-Shaman series. The suggested reading order is:

- Shaman, Healer, Heretic
- Shaman, Friend, Enemy
- Shaman, Sister, Sorceress
- Shaman, Priestess, Pawn
- Shaman, Lover, Warrior
